Hi, Jerome, a quick question would you be potentially interested to travel to NYC to perform in the weekend of September 21-22? I am with a new group now for work and we are curious about your availability. Hopefully we can work it out.

Hi Hanna,

how are you?

Could you let me know if and when your colleague Kasia already sent / will send the email? I have not seen yet her email and I would not want to miss it (for some technical reason?).

Also May I ask for your phone and email contact info please?

Have a nice day.

Jerome

My austrian phone is +43670551 5111

Hey thanks for your reply.

I'm ok to wait for the email. My production manager being on holidays until mid July anyway. I just wanted to make sure I don't miss your emails. (I have had issues with my communication services.)

I am in budapest at the moment.

cool. The email would be from Kasia Murphy ASRA network

What is her email? Just so I check my spam folders also.

Have a nice day!

kmurphy@asranetwork.org

you too! Great to hear that you are that nearby hope Budapest is fun

Yes I'm struggling with the French political situation more than ever but I do it from budapest at the moment...

And with the European situation too... etc.

Ok I stop because I can also mention the USA

 haha, another great place to struggle. I saw Orbán's cortege this weekend, after he signed off some party agreement on Patriots of Europe with the Austrian ultra-right

Fuck...

 Sorry for my French...

 yeah, we are up for a ride, it kind of got out of hand.

 He is supposed to be in Ukraine today...

I read about this anyways, let's catch up at some point - over a call or come over to Vienna. I am afraid we are not traveling much these days

 Yes let's do this. I know I cannot come to wien before July 17

Maybe I can come on the 17th but you said you guys leave on the 17th

 yeah, it is the last day and we will be swamped

I might go to wien airport then I can come to town

Unfortunate timing.

 let's have a call and I come visit when u are back to wien oki doki. Have a great summer then! Lydia starts school this September so we have the last week of August as an option, then it is school and work, but the weekends are there

Mon 2:07 PM

 Hi Hanna, how are you? Just so you know before you go on holidays: I did not receive any email for now.

 Jerome, thanks for checking in. And no one wrote cause we are behind, but I promise we will write shortly. I am also not completely off, will be working from the states.

Mon 2:27 PM

are you available for a quick call on Wednesday morning/early afternoon with me and our communication director Kasia? I hope after this pitch and we can start kicking the ball for next steps. Can you already give a ballpark amount for your fees? Do not hold back, and of course travel and accomodation should be covered by us. I think she wants to see if she can budget and it would be good if you pitch the sustainability, connection to green planet etc during the call. We are this organization <https://www.asranetwork.org/> The event will be a high level launch of ASRA's first report on September 21 evening event 18:00-20:00.
